Rules & Regulations:

- A Nikah is performed with a proposal (Ejaab) by the male or female and acceptance (Qubool) by the male or female prior to the the Nikah and in the presence of two male Muslim witnesses.
- It is Sunnah that the Nikah be announced and performed in the Masjid and the bride must be represented by her Mahram (father, brother, etc.).
- The Wali or Wakeel should take consent from the Bride in the presence of two witnesses to perform her Nikah, before the ceremony takes place.
- At the place of Nikah, the Wali or Wakeel represents the bride in the presence of the two witnesses who must be trustworthy, pious male Muslims who are not her ascendants e.g. father, grandfather or descendants e.g. son, grandson, etc.
- The Meher (dowry) is the woman's right and should be stipulated prior to the Nikah. Preferably in cash will be more appropriate, deferred is also accepted.
- Please abide by the rules and regulations of the Nikah mentioned in this form to avoid any inconvenience.
- Nikah performed in Masjid can be attended by men only and numbers of people attending must be stated. If women are attending, it needs to be clarified with the office and can only be done in the lobby area with the numbers attending declared prior to the event. Islamic dress code is essential. An additional cost may be incurred.
- All sections of the form must be completed before submitting, otherwise the application may be rejected.
- Nikah booking will require ID , in the form of a current passport, driving licence, proof of address. If (talaq/khula) or widowed, the appropriate certificate will be required.

CANCELLATION FEES:-

- ⇒ 7 days or more. 75% of the Fee.
- ⇒ Less than 7 days. 90% of the Fee.
- ⇒ On the day/non attendance. 100% of the Fee.
- ⇒ Late arrival of more than 10 minutes will automatically cancel your Nikah booking and there will be no refund
